Getting to Know You

A five-time winner of the 24 Hours of Le Mans, Oliver Gavin is the quintessential Englishman. The longest-serving member of the Corvette Racing driver roster, Gavin will contest his 18th season with Corvette Racing in 2019. Gavin has won 50 races with Corvette Racing, four ALMS titles, one IMSA WeatherTech championship and five Le Mans victories to his credit. He and Tommy Milner won four times in 2016 to claim their second class Driver's title. They teamed again in 2017 with a victory at Long Beach for the No. 4 Mobil 1/SiriusXM Chevrolet Corvette C7.R. He and Milner also recorded Corvette Racing's 100th program victory in 2016 at Lime Rock Park. The Gavin/Milner pairing won the 2012 ALMS GT championship and won the 2015 24 Hours of Le Mans with Jordan Taylor in the GTE Pro class.

A native of Cambridgeshire, Gavin won multiple championships in British open-wheel formula cars before scoring his first victory with Corvette Racing in the 24 Hours of Le Mans in 2002. He became a full-season Corvette driver in 2003, and won three consecutive American Le Mans Series GT1 drivers championships with Corvette Racing teammate Olivier Beretta in 2005-07.

Recognized as one of the world's brightest talents in sports car competition, Gavin has an impressive resume of victories and track records. He began his racing career in karting in the '80s, competing in British national series. In 1990, Gavin moved up to single-seaters and promptly won the British National Formula First Series in 1991, scoring 11 wins in 12 races. This remarkable season earned Gavin the prestigious McLaren Autosport Young Driver of the Year award. The following year he finished second in the British Formula Vauxhall Championship. In 1993, Gavin moved up to the highly regarded British Formula 3 Championship and finished as runner-up in the drivers championship.

In 1994, Gavin competed in the FIA International F3000 championship. Returning to British Formula 3 in 1995, he dominated the series with six victories and won the championship while also working as a test driver for the Pacific Formula 1 team. In the late '90s Gavin competed in the International Touring Car series as a factory Opel driver while also working as a Formula 1 test driver for Benetton and Renault (1997-2005) and driving the safety car during the Formula 1 season. When not racing, Gavin competes in marathon, biathlon and triathlon events. He resides in Yardley Hastings, Northampton, with his wife, Helen, and children Lily, Isaac and Fergus.
